LOCATION

The building benefits from a town centre position in historic Windsor, to the northern flank of Windsor Castle, fronting the corner of Datchet Road at its junction with Thames Street.

The pub fronts the main tourist route and a pedestrian thoroughfare from the centre of Windsor to the bridge, over the River Thames into Eton. Many casual dining brands are represented within close proximity, including Browns; Prezzo; Nando's; Thai Square; Giggling Squid; and Zizzi.

Windsor and Eton Riverside railway station provides direct services into London Waterloo with a journey time of around 55 minutes.

Windsor Castle and its retail centre of the town attracts circa 1.5 million visitors each year, making it a major tourist hub.
