Location

Excellent position fronting popular High Street surrounded by a host of commercial and retail occupiers including a busy Tesco Superstore. The pub enjoys a monopolistic position, away from a cluster of competitor pubs on the northern end of the High Street. There is a large residential neighbourhood located just off the High Street, mixed in terms of style, age and ownership.

Epping Underground Station (Central Line), lies approximately 500 metres to the southeast and provides frequent services into central London with a journey time of around 35 minutes into London Liverpool Street.

Location plans are attached. Link to Street View
